

The Rotary Youth Exchange Scholarship

Rotary District 5370's Youth Exchange Program, with the help of our local Rotary clubs and our overseas partners, has made a number of Rotary Youth Exchange Scholarships available for the 2018-19 academic year. Valued at over $20,000, each scholarship covers room (homestay), board, tuition, and a monthly stipend while overseas.

The Rotary Scholarship is travel to their host countries in approximately late July to mid-September, 2018, and return in approximately late June of the following year. They'll attend high school in their host countries and are expected to act as goodwill ambassadors representing Rotary and their home country Canada.

Minimum Requirements to apply:

- Between 16 and 18½ on September 1, 2018 (may currently be in 9th, 10th, or 11th grade)
- ☐ Good academic standing
- ☐ Open-minded individuals who demonstrate leadership qualities

Applicants are not required to be involved with Rotary in any way before applying. Children of Rotarians are welcome to participate but are not given any preference. Home-schooled and private school students, and students with disabilities are encouraged to apply
